

Heroes of the

Shining a spotlight on the Veteran-owned businesses of the Inc. 5000

Success often derives from qualities and experiences in other walks of life. One such instance is the military veteran: a defender of freedom, an inspiring member of the community, and an individual who has demonstrated many of the traits necessary for becoming a successful entrepreneur.

Risk taking, self-confidence, determination, discipline, time management, and the allocation of resources are seen in both military and business. Higher education teaches students fundamentals and theory; veterans learn through applying their acquired skills to real life circumstances in the field. Coupled with the ability to think quickly on their feet and side-step problems, these military men and women are poised to become natural-born and trained leaders in entrepreneurship.

Inc. will help you elevate your company as a Veteran-owned, fast-growing business through this special offering in the 2020 March/April issue of the magazine. Founders and CEOs of this exclusive group of Inc. 5000 companies have the unique opportunity to share their powerful stories of how the military prepared them to run a successful business.

BENEFITS

- Receive recognition as a fast-growing company in a quarter for half page profile
- Be honored among your peers in this special section

PARTNERSHIP DETAILS

- Supply a company profile or your personal story to create a profile
- Supply a company logo or image
- Approval prior to publishing
- Profile pages will live on Inc. Branded Content section of Inc.com
- Page design will follow templated layout included with this document

On Sale: 3.24.20

Profile Commitment: 2.7.20

For more information, contact: Tom Emerson, tom@directactionmedia.com

516-442-5248

NICE WORK. A JOB WELL DONE

Insights from America's best workplaces

*Feel the Joy with Homestead
Road*

Homestead Road is on a mission to make the world a better place by serving people who want to sell their homes "as is" and stress-free. Our company empowers employees to reach their own goals, while teaching them how to provide best-in-class customer service. We provide competitive compensation and excellent benefits. Our shared core values allow both customers and employees to feel the joy of working with Homestead Road.

Working at DiscoverOrg isn't about clocking in and clocking out. It's about setting goals you're not sure you can hit, hitting those, and lining up the next ones - until you're achieving things you never thought possible. DiscoverOrg is a company where every team member is valued, listened to, and positioned for success. No matter where you're going, you're fueled to rise to stardom at DiscoverOrg.

The Evergreen School District's Family & Community Resource Center receives a donation from DiscoverOrg and our CEO Henry Schuck's family.

The Florence Team's Annual Vision Planning Retreat

Florence is on a mission to transform clinical research operations with technology. By connecting research sites and sponsors in a single digital environment, Florence helps life-saving medical advancements reach patients faster while driving down drug development costs. Behind the scenes at Florence is a group of people dedicated to delivering the best solutions and customer experience to those who push the boundaries of medicine.

